Committee chairmen or ranking representatives of committees for the past year gave brief annual reports on the work accomplished by the various groups.

Mysterious Shooting in Penn Valley Fatal to 16-Year-Old Boy

Manayunk Youth Dies in Bryn Mawr Hospital From Bullet Wound

A 16-year-old Manayunk boy, who was mysteriously shot Monday afternoon while riding his bicycle on Centennial road, Penn Valley, died early Tuesday morning in Bryn Mawr Hospital.

The youth, Salvatore Salvetti, of 131 Krams avenue, Manayunk, had decorated his bicycle with red, white and blue bunting in celebration of the Fourth of July and was riding along the road headed for Narberth, when the mystery shooting occurred.

Salvetti was found lying on Centennial road by Kirk Swing, Jr., eleven-year-old boy, who was playing lawn golf on the property of Thomas Barnes, 2d, whose place abuts on Centennial road. The boy is a son of Mrs. Barnes by a former marriage.

Swing told police he heard a moaning noise from the road and walked down to investigate. Salvetti was moaning and clutching his side. He pleaded with the Swing boy to bring him a drink of water.

Swing ran back to the house to tell his mother, who notified Lower Merion police. They took Salvetti to Bryn Mawr Hospital in the Barnes' station wagon.

On the way to the hospital, the youth kept asking Patrolman John Paddon, who accompanied him, if he was going to die. An emergency operation was performed, but surgeons were unable to find the bullet.

Four blood transfusions were given immediately following the operation by J. M. Miller and John Paddon, Lower Merion patrolmen, and by the boy's father and a volunteer, in an attempt to save the boy.

Before lapsing into unconsciousness, Salvetti told police that he heard the report of a gun before he felt the sharp pain in his back and fell from his bicycle. He could not remember passing anyone on the road or seeing anyone near where he was riding.

Police interviewed residents who

Narberth Cops Three to Lead League Again

Brookline Dethroned as Haremen Bow to Davismen, 10 to 3

By virtue of three victories during the holiday week-end Narberth once more is perched on top of the Main Line League. The Davismen clinched the few points necessary to dethrone Brookline from the pedestal Monday afternoon when they humbled the Haremen, 10-3, on the borough play-field.

The other games, all at Narberth, saw the Media A. A. jolted, 9-0, and the Paoli nine subdued, 10-1.

In an exhibition game Sunday, the local team lost to the Crescentville A. C., 11-3, its first defeat in eleven games.

Al Herrmann was the winning hurler against both Media and Brookline while Lyons did the pitching against Paoli.

Lefty Burdsall, ace of the Brookline staff, suffered his second defeat of the season, due in large part to the long wallops of Harry Fox. Harry hit a three-bagger in the first inning with the bases all occupied and his homer in the sixth sent a man in ahead of him.

In fact Brookline made two more hits, nine altogether, off Al than Narberth made off Lefty, but four Brookline errors didn't help the visitors keep down the score.

During the three games outfielder Bailey had six safeties, while Ogden's homers, one against Media and the other against Paoli, gave the cash customers plenty of thrills.

Tomorrow will be the "dream game," mentioned at more length elsewhere, while on Sunday Upper Darby will visit the borough diamond.

Smoke Damages Home

About $25 damage by smoke was caused Wednesday at 1235 P. M. at the home of L. C. Piercy, 116 Dudley avenue, Narberth. Dampness in the chimney was believed to have forced the smoke back into the residence when the hot water heater was lighted.

The Narberth Fire Company was also called out to a truck blaze at Wynnewood and Windsor avenues, last Thursday at 5.30 P. M. No damage was reported.

Dream Game Tomorrow Will See Picked Stars On Narberth Field

Forty-eight players and managers have been voted berths on the two Main Line League squads that will clash Saturday in the league's first annual Dream Game on the Narberth playground.

Main Line fans cast their votes for the two teams, one representing the Upper Main Line section and the other, the Lower.

Ed Hare, veteran Brookline manager was chosen to lead the Lower squad while Ed Sheridan, of Downingtown, will pilot the Upper. Assistant managers for the Lower will be Ed Sullivan, of Media, and Jim Keys, of Gladwyne. Assisting Sheridan will be Marty Feit, of Pottstown.

The game is for the benefit of players who suffer loss of time from their regular jobs through injuries received while playing in league games. It was originally conceived to aid Mickey Gavin, the Narberth player, who lost his leg in an accident less than twenty-four hours after he had scored the run that gave Narberth the league title in the deciding play-off game last year. A portion of the fund will be given to Mickey and the rest will go into the players' fund.

Dream Game Teams

Upper Main Line squad:

Manager: Ed Sheridan, Downingtown; assistant: Marty Feit, Pottstown.

First base: Kish, Downingtown; Poley, Pottstown.

Democratic Assessors' Board Ousted By State Supreme Court Decision

Montgomery County Republicans hailed with delight Wednesday the decision of the State Supreme Court which declared unconstitutional the Act giving Democrats control of the Boards of Revision of Taxes in third class counties, Montgomery, Delaware, Luzerne, Lackawanna and Westmoreland.

The decision of the Board of Revision of Taxes will throw out of office at Norristown the three Democrats who started their $5000 jobs "under protest" of the Republican Board early in June. The Democratic Board was Joseph McElwee, Merion; Francis Hayes, Norristown, and Raymond Mensch of Gilbertsville.

The ruling returns to the County

Gavin was to have had a trial with the Chicago White Sox this year. He is now the statistician for the Main Line Loop.

Because of the vast volume of votes cast and the closeness of the ballot, two players have been selected for each position with the exception of pitcher. Two utility players were also named.

Brookline, with eight, leads the parade in the Lower Main Line division and Paoli, with seven, the Upper. Narberth has six and Gladwyne seven. Gene Davis, Narberth manager requested Ray Cabrey, Dream Game Committee chairman, to disregard ballots cast for him as manager of the Lower Main Line squad because of the duties he will have in getting the Borough Field in the best of shape for the game.

All fourteen umpires on the Main Line League staff have volunteered to work gratis. Chief Umpire Bert Powell will choose the other three umpires who will work with him.

Ray Gadsby, Villanova team trainer, will serve in a similar capacity for both teams on the day of the game.

First Opera at Dell is 'Madame Butterfly'

Popular Production Will Feature Metropolitan Stars Monday and Tuesday Nights

The first opera of the summer season, Puccini's popular and beautiful "Madame Butterfly," heads the list of brilliant musical events to be presented Monday and Tuesday in the Robin Hood Dell, Fairmount Park, with Alexander Smallens, conducting.

Another important musical program of the coming week scheduled by the Dell in keeping with their traditional policy of offering variety and the best music, will be presented Thursday and Friday nights when Harold Bauer, one of the greatest pianists of all time, will appear as soloist. Alfred Wallenstein, noted cellist-conductor, will wield the baton.

An all-star cast, including many members of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York, will appear in "Madame Butterfly," which will be sung in Italian.

Miss Maria Samson, world-renowned soprano, who is a former member of the Royal Opera in Budapest, will sing the title role. This will be her first appearance in Philadelphia.

Armand Tokaty, star tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will portray B. F. Pinkerton, the Lieutenant in the United States Navy. Also singing in this opera will be Georgia Standing, a former member of the Philadelphia Opera Company, as Suzuki, Butterfly's servant. Sydney de Vries, who has sung in Opera in sixteen countries throughout the world, will appear as Sharpless.

Other members of cast are Philena Falco as Mrs. Pinkerton; Eugene Lowenthal as Prince Yamadori, suitor of Butterfly; Charles Hayward, as Goro; Louis D'Angelo, as Bonze; and Benjamin Grobani, as the commissario. Many of these artists are familiar to Philadelphia music lovers. Karl Schroeder directed the production.

Local Rod and Gun Club Takes Honors at Souderton

The Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club, Inc., took high honors at Souderton's Half Century of Progress celebration, Tuesday. The celebration committee turned the events over to the sportsmen of Montgomery County and the local boys captured many of the prizes in the different events.

A. Donald Amesbury won first prize for rifle shooting, with James McGovern, second.

James McGovern won first prize in the pistol shooting contest.

Ernest Jenkins won first prize in the plug casting for accuracy with Wayne Burnside, second.

Wayne D. Burnside won first prize for fly casting for accuracy with Joseph P. White, second.

Ernest Jenkins won first prize for distance fly casting with Joseph P. White, second.

Liquor Ban by 1939 Aim of Boro Drys

Group Will Seek to Win Local Option Election Two Years From Now

A bone-dry borough by 1939 is the aim of a group of Protestant ministers and laymen of Narberth.

About thirty-five representatives from four borough churches met informally Tuesday night at the Narberth Presbyterian Church to lay plans for a campaign for a local option election two years hence.

Present were members from the Presbyterian Church, the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church, Baptist Church of the Evangel and the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Archer E. Anderson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, presided, and Warren S. Bossert, also a Presbyterian, of Merion avenue, was chosen campaign chairman.

The gathering was the third such meeting since June 28 when Governor Earle signed a bill which permits State municipalities a local option on the sale of liquor.

In order to have referendum it will be necessary to have signatures to a petition totalling 25 per cent of the largest number of votes cast for any office in the previous election.

26 From This Section Chosen for Jury Duty

Panels Will be Called for Service September 13 and 20 and October 4

A Main Line woman has been chosen on the county Grand Jury which meets September 13 at Norristown while twenty-five Lower Merion and Narberth residents have been drawn to serve on the Petit Jurors beginning either September 20 or October 4.

The grand juror is Rachel A. McCurdy, of 400 West Lancaster avenue, Ardmore.

Petit jurors were chosen from the following communities:

Ardmore: Annie D. Carr, 116 Argyle road; Andrew Talone, 318 West Lancaster avenue; Helen Brown, 119 Montgomery avenue; Mary Ellis, 115 Argyle road; Ethel Hurford, 222 East Montgomery avenue; Edward H. Lyett, Jr., 30 Simpson road; Ann Ziegler, 113 Argyle road.

Bala-Cynwyd: Heister C. Cook, 429 State road; Erminie Feicht, 111 Old Lancaster road; Luther Parsons; Charles Haubert, Chestnut lane; Ida Scott, 6 Bala avenue; Clara Winters, 123 Bryn Mawr avenue.

Bryn Mawr: Mary Ball, 1022 Reese avenue; Raymond Gray, 12 Elliott avenue; William H. C. Ramsey, 632 Montgomery avenue; Albert Hendrick, 907 Old Lancaster road.

Merion: Mary V. Donnelly, 698 Beacom lane.

Narberth: Charles L. Clegg, 237 Essex avenue; Frank Dunlop, 209 Dudley avenue; Doris Fleer, 15 Woodside avenue; Loretta L. Noel, 232 North Narberth avenue; George B. Knapp, Jr., 418 Dudley avenue; J. H. Miller, 426 Haverford avenue. Penn Wynne: Miriam Amos.

Fair Weather Hoped For, But Substitute Date (17th) is Set

MORE OF HONOR ROLL

By THE SPECTATOR

If we had prayed for fair winds ourselves, it might have been different, but we delegated the supplication to others and you see what happened.

The consolation is that the good time is still to come, and that helps some, as we will see tomorrow, Saturday night, when the new moon is sure to hang low, and never mind its influence on those who are affected that way, as it's mindful of your own youthful trysts you ought to be and some more of the same at this time might not be bad for you at all.

If the rain comes instead of the moon, however, it will be the 17th before the shooting can be done, as they do say you can't eat fireworks (maybe on account of the heart-burn) and so sooner or later the displays will hold forth, but let us have confidence that the 10th (tomorrow) will be fine, in which case the occasion is sure to be.

The folks are doing exceedingly well on the donations and the list is so long that we are not sure the editor can spare all the space necessary. Therefore, if your name is not here it will be next week (if you help) and keep in mind that the surplus will go to a cause which has earned the acclaim and appreciation of all of us, as you will agree when the facts are reported.

Aronimink Transportation Company, the alert bus system which serves Narberth and its environs, donated, without urging, $10 to the fund instead of $5 as was reported last week.

Fourth Annual Shaw Festival Opens July 19

Four Weeks' Program at Hedgerow Includes Twelve Shavian Dramas

The Hedgerow Theatre in Moylan-Rose Valley is polishing off its final week of repertory before the opening of its Fourth Annual Shaw Festival, which will run at the famous local playhouse from July 19 to August 14. The four weeks of Shavian drama will include eleven of the master's dramas which will be presented in ten evenings, the whole cycle to be presented twice, and interrupted here and there for presentations of this year's birthday play, "Too True To Be Good," which will open July 26 in honor of Shaw's 81st birthday. Tonight, Andre Obey's "Noah" will play while the Piscator version of Dreiser's "American Tragedy" will be presented tomorrow night. Molnar's "Liliom," the absorbing story of love and ultimate tragedy for a circus-barker and his self-sacrificing bride, will be given Monday. On Tuesday, "One Way to Heaven" by Countee Cullen, will be seen, Wednesday, "Noah," Thursday, "The Round Table" and Friday, "Beyond the Horizon," by O'Neill.

Summer Music Classes

The Bryn Mawr Conservatory of Music announces a special summer session beginning July 12 and continuing through August, with classes and instruction available in all departments. A special feature this season will be supervised trips to Robin Hood Dell Concerts, which will be preceded by music appreciation lectures and score-reading.

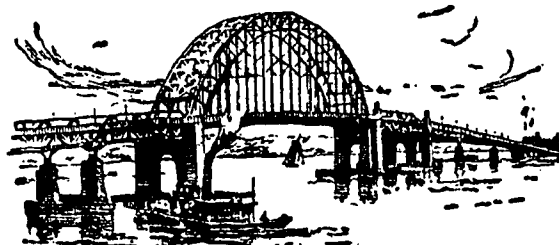

Relief Cases Increase

Relief cases in both Lower Merion and Narberth showed a slight increase last week. Four families are now on the rolls in Narberth, with twenty-seven households receiving aid in Lower Merion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wells of South Highland avenue and Mrs. Anna Carey How of Essex avenue, Narberth, left last Thursday for two weeks in Deerfield, Mass., and Lake Winnepauskee, N. H.

Narberth Theatre Features Five Pictures During Week

"Marked Woman," now at the Narberth, stars Bette Davis and Humphrey Bogart in an expose of the vice racket, based on the famous "Lucky Luciano" case. Bette is a night club hostess.

This Saturday Lionel Barrymore will be seen as a county judge whose duty forces him to issue unpopular orders in spite of coming elections and family affections. Cecilia Parker and Eric Linden supply the love interest.

Monday the popular "Play Bonus" will be at 9 P. M. The picture will be "Mountain Justice," a film about the backwardness and prejudice against "hill-billy" country. Josephine Hutchinson and George Brent have the principal roles.

Tuesday's film will be "Time Out for Romance," a light comedy co-starring Claire Trevor and Michael Whalen.

Wednesday (Cash Award Night) Patsy Kelly will be seen in "Nobody's Baby." She and Lyda Roberti are cast as student nurses. Lynne Overman has the role of a detective.

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday the Narberth will present "A Star is Born" with Janet Gaynor and Fredric March.

Playground News

Activities are in full swing on Narberth playground these days. An increase over last year in the number of boys and girls participating in play games and sports gives an indication that the grounds will act as host to happy and carefree youngsters. Every day an average of 150 to 175 children and grownups take part in the playground life.

Softball, Basketball for Girls
A call for candidates for the organization of a girls' softball team has been issued by Miss Julia Landis. A game, to add interest to the sport, has already been scheduled for next week with Haverford playground. The other addition is a girls' basketball court. These two new features will provide the girls with a greater variety of activities than hitherto provided.

Handicraft

The handicraft program will start Tuesday, July 13, at 2 P. M., in the afternoon and last until 4.30. It will be given thereafter on every Tuesday and Thursday of the week. New and interesting features have been added to the already large list of handicraft projects that have been made in the past. Some of the new features are weaving, basketry, making book-markers from shoe laces, hot mats, moccasins and belts.

Teams Organized

Teams are being organized in baseball, paddle tennis, tennis. All those interested are asked to please sign up at the playground. A Junior Baseball League is being organized and games will be played on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays from 2 to 4.30.

King's Daughters Fete Children

The Board of Directors of the King's Daughters Holiday House gave a group of 30 underprivileged children and their mothers an outing at Valley Forge on Monday. After visiting the historic shrines, a picnic luncheon was served.

Members of the organization from Narberth, Bala-Cynwyd, Haverford and Bryn Mawr were present.

Now Five Legislative Districts

Governor Earle last week signed the Zappala Bill which officially divides Montgomery County into five legislative districts.

The only district affected is the former Third District which has been subdivided into three: Third, the Old York road area; Fourth, a district taking in the North Penn Valley; and Fifth, a subdivision including the Perkiomen Valley section.

The first district includes Lower Merion, Narberth, Upper Merion, Bridgeport and West Conshohocken, while the second takes in Norristown, Conshohocken and Plymouth Township. Both of these remain the same.

Mysterious Shooting is Fatal to 16-Year-Old

lived on Centennial road and questioned everyone they could find who had been in the vicinity that afternoon, but were unable to find anyone who could throw any light on the case or who owned a rifle of the type they believe was used in the shooting.
Salvetti's father, Michael, is employed as a gardener and grave digger at the West Laurel Hill Cemetery. His mother, Camilla, collapsed when she arrived at the hospital and was told of the accident.
Lieutenant Brown, head of the Lower Merion Detective Bureau, believes the shooting was accidental and thinks it possible that the person who fired the shot does not realize that he or she hit anyone.

PUC to Supervise Truckers

According to the Public Utility Law which became effective June 1, the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Commission of Pennsylvania has been enlarged to include contract carriers by motor vehicle.
Formerly the commission regulated only those who transport property and persons by motor vehicle as common carriers for hire.
Brokers, contract carriers and other truckers are advised to see the PUC representative at Room 705, Keystone Building, 261 North Broad street, Philadelphia, who will explain the provisions of the new law.
